VOL. 2 NO. 5

JULY 2020

CLAY MOULDING ACTIVITY

SRI SATHYA SAI VIDYANIKETAN REPORTER

Shinning star of SSSVN faded:

Prof. T.C.Shah, chairman School Management Committee and editor of Sanathan Sarathi (Gujarati) left his heavenly body and merged with Divinity. During his association with school over two decade, he not only steered the growth and development of school but also provided necessary strength as a pillar of support in the times of critical needs. We the SSSVN family members pray to Swami to bless the departed soul by giving place at his divine lotus feet.

Guru Purnima Celebration:

To strengthen the Guru and Students relations and to given first hand knowledge about importance of guru in their life. Our school celebrated online Guru Purnima on 4th July 2020 in which laksharchana was main attraction.

Students joined in laksharachana from home enthusiastically along with their parents.

Guru always lives in a disciple's heart... Baba

Students Engagement and wellbeing:

“Healthy mind is for healthy body”, In COVID-19 time keeping good health is top priority for students. Our school organized two wellbeing classes with the help of Balvikas faculty from USA and India(Puttaparthi). Nearly all students got benefit of this programme.

COVID collaboration with parents:

To keep parents and their wards safe and healthy in school shared number of online resources through Whatsapp group. Also conducted parents meeting of classes I to XII parents and resolved their concerns and assured all cooperation from school to continue learning of their ward.

Co – Curricular Activities:

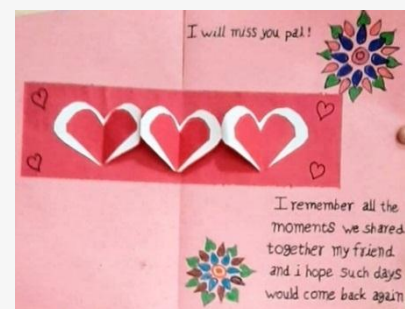

In order to develop motor skills and understanding nature through experiential learning our school organised Clay Moulding as part of Co – curricular activity on 18th July 2020.

In order to tell importance of trees for ecological balance our school organised plantation activity for class I to V on 25th July 2020.

And to develop creativity and to show case their creative skills school conducted card making competition for class VI to IX.

To explore student's writing skills school provided platform of Slogan / calligraphy competition as part of Co - curricular activity on 18th July 2020.

Professional development programme on "Online Teaching in Covid era" by the school:

As part of CBSE initiatives and pressing need of the hour to extend learning support to 550 students, our school organized one day Online Training Programme on 15th July, 2020 in collaboration with Macmillan India Limited. Nearly 32 teachers attended webinar. The webinar was on topic 'how to make online teaching interesting' by Gerard Andrew Pereira. The whole programme was coordinated by Mrs Binita Mohapatra (I/C Principal).
